

From the Region Director

Summer has most definitely come to an end. Those warm/hot, humid days of early sunshine and late evenings have changed to much cooler days with a lazy sun coming up well past 6:30AM! If you stitch by daylight, have you had to reposition your chair, or, maybe add a light to make up for the change in the angle of the sunlight? Yes, a most definite Change in the Season has happened again, and we make changes also. Some wise person said, "The only thing constant is change", and yet, while things change, they stay the same too.

How do they stay the same but still change? Well, the positions that guide the Carolinas Region are the same – Region Director (RD), Assistant Region Director (ARD), Treasurer, Secretary, Director of Education — yet every 3 years, you vote different people in to fill those positions. Every year there are 2 stitching events held in the Region (acknowledging pandemics may interrupt our planning), yet who builds them and where they are held changes. And you know what? The stitchers who attend these events stay the same, with new stitchers attending each time. So, while we are always changing, we are also staying the same. There is comfort in the sameness that we embrace, but there is a yearning to explore something/ someone new.

Change is coming in my life very soon, and yes, we have bought a house! It is located about halfway between Raleigh, NC, and Fayetteville, NC, for anyone who wants to look it up. If you can find the tiny town of Chalybeate Springs, NC, you are very close. It is a new house, a ranch & a half. That means that I get the 'half' (upstairs) for my stitching & sewing area as well as the bedroom for my office! OH! MY! That means that I must pack up ALL my stuff! Plus, there is trying to figure out what color I would like to paint my work area. How shall I store my supplies & materials & threads — shelves? Cabinets? Drawers? A mixture? Aughhhh . . . change! Where to put my stitching area? What is the best location for my cutting table? And the lighting has to be addressed as there is only 1 dim light in the whole bonus area.

CALENDAR
2022 – via ZOOM	2023
Sat, Nov 19: Stitch-in, 10 am Tue, Dec 13: Stitch-in, 2 pm Sat, Dec 17: Stitch-in, 10 am	June 2-4: Crossing the Carolinas, CAR Spring Seminar, Clemmons, NC Fall: CAR Fall Retreat, TBD 2024 Spring: CAR Spring Retreat, TBD

As for my 'office', well that is a bit easier as it will have my desk plus my husband's fifth-grade desk to hold the printer. Yes, I still need a printer. I have found that I read paper differently than I read computer screens. Oh yes, that means that the shredder will be in that room also. I wonder where I will put the bed . . . Should any of you find yourself in the middle of Almost Nowhere, NC, my door is open to you and I would love to visit with you.

CAR Spring Seminar 2023

So, after all that about changes, you do know about the Spring Seminar, right? It is going to be held on the 1st weekend of June — June 2 thru 4, 2023. Did you put it on your calendar yet? I will wait while you open your computer calendar or get your phone, or find that purse calendar, or even get the calendar off the wall! . . . Oh, good, you are back after saving that weekend. What weekend? June 2 - 4, 2023 for the Spring Seminar. THAT weekend.

CAR Retreats instead of Seminars 2023-2024

Now there is a reason for what I just wrote you, you see, that is going to be the last seminar for a bit of time in the Carolinas. The Executive Committee talked about this for a while, the last time we met. As a way to help you save up your pennies for the 2024 National Seminar, which is going to be held in Atlanta, we decided that CAR is going to have Retreats for Fall 2023, Spring 2024, and Fall 2024. Plus, we looked at dates for holding the Fall 2024 retreat that were not so close to the end of National 2024. A stitcher has to have some time to work on the projects from National, right?

Nominating Committee needed

I do find myself (and the EC) in need of a Chair for the Nominating committee. What skills do you have to have? Well, breathing is always a plus, but other than that, be willing to stay in touch with me & have an organizational skill that works for you. My first position in the Cardinal chapter was on the Nominating Committee & I had only lived in NC for a year, when the pandemic was going on! I didn't know anyone! Maybe that was what made me fearless in calling members & asking them to aid the chapter. Once again, I am in the same situation – I am brand new to the Region & know very little about most of you. What stops me from calling you personally, is I think there is a rule or something about me keeping my nose out of the business of the committee. I think . . .

As you gather together, remember the stitchers who are no longer with you. You might feel a tug at your heart as you say their name, memories will come up that will put a smile on your face — sharing stitching woes, the excitement of attending a class together, trips to retreats or seminars, roommates that were 'interesting', and the happiness of the times shared together. As Etienne de Grellet said, "I shall pass thru this life but once. Any good that I can therefore do, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it. For I shall never pass this way again". Be safe in your travels & enjoy the beauty that is all around us, especially that new project that is calling your name.

*Yours in stitching,
Gail Smith

Be sure to put this on your calendar! Start planning now to attend (in-person!) the 2023 CAR Spring Seminar to be held June 2 - 4, 2023, in Clemmons, NC. We will hold this exciting event at the Village Inn and Event Center located at 6205 Ramada Drive, Clemmons, NC 27012 (the same place we went in 2021). Those of you who participated in the last Seminar here will remember the hotel is clean and comfortable, serves us a complementary full hot-cooked breakfast, and has many restaurants located near-by.

During this three-day event, you can sign-up for a tour of the Museum of Early Southern Decorative Arts in near-by Winston-Salem; visit the Time to Stitch needlework shop, also in Winston-Salem; register for a wonderful class (see below); and enjoy the fellowship of mingling and stitching with new and old friends. And, of course, everyone is invited to attend the Region's Board of Directors Annual meeting – hear what the Region and National EGA is doing and what is planned for the future.

Those who attended the 2022 Fall Retreat were able to view these class pieces offered at next June's Seminar.

Dawn Donnelly will teach Sea Treasures, an intermediate-level 18-ct canvas or linen piece (your choice of material) that incorporates actual sea shells (either provided in the kit or provided from your own personal collection).

Mary Alice Sinton will teach Whirligig Treasure Chest, a basic Japanese Beading technique in which you attach beads onto a printed fabric, and then finish by mounting it into a Sudberry trinket box (included in the kit).

And Pat Olski will teach Blush Peony Pin, Necklace, and Bracelet set, using embellished Dorset Buttons.

Pat's class, suitable for all levels, teaches the basics of how to wrap and embellish Dorset Buttons and then incorporate them into different pieces of jewelry.

Watch for a teaser brochure to come out first, then we will send out the full brochure to include registration forms and everything else you need to join in the fun. Registration begins immediately after the holidays, with Early Registration starting January 2, 2023.

Stitching At The State Fair, SC

Millwood and Aiken Chapters sharing their love of stitching

Members of the Millwood Chapter (Columbia) and the Aiken Stitchin' Belles demonstrated, displayed, and answered questions – lots and lots of questions – at the South Carolina State Fair on 14 October 2022.

We provided free patterns and skeins of DMC floss to those who expressed an interest and also handed out bookmarks that include information about where and when we meet. The following week, one of our visitors attended the Millwood Chapter's weekly stitch-in; we showed her how to start her pattern, and she joined EGA on the spot!

Carolinas Region Runs on People Power

Join the team that keeps the CAR running smoothly . . .

In spite of the many challenges in the last few years, Carolinas Region (CAR) chapters have grown and flourished. We've met in city parks, in members' carports, and other outdoor venues when we had to social distance. We gladly wore masks to keep ourselves and our friends safe and healthy. We learned how to use technology beyond our expectations so we could keep meeting to share our love of stitching.

Through all these challenges, the CAR Executive Committee (EC) kept a steady hand on the wheel to keep our members informed and to bring them new opportunities to stitch together, to learn, to expand their experience of Local Needlework Shops (LNS) in our region and around the country (to shop for that special needlework tool or fabric or thread), and to experience wonderful teachers. We enjoyed a really rich, active, and vibrant period of growth and learning in our region.

In September 2022, we elected a new EC: Gail Smith-RD, Marguerite Ewing-Secretary, Becky Buie-Treasurer, and Janet Noble-Director of Education. One slot, Assistant Region Director (ARD), is still open. If we are to continue to keep CAR thriving we need all positions filled and functioning. Many hands make light work, as they say.

Please consider volunteering to fill the ARD position. Don't think you know enough? You're in luck. Now is the best time to serve on Carolinas Region's EC, there are some really knowledgeable and experienced people already on this Committee to learn from. Join the team, make new friends, help CAR continue to thrive!

Contact Gail Smith at regiondirector@egacarolinas.org to see if you might be a good fit.

So good to be with old friends and make new ones...

FRIDAY NIGHT LECTURE: "Exploring Shading in Surface Embroidery" by Kim Sanders

Carole Overton stepped up to deliver the lecture and show Kim's beautiful slides in Kim's absence (due to illness). Though we missed Kim, Carole did a stellar job on the lecture, and a good time was had by all. Thanks Kim and Carole!

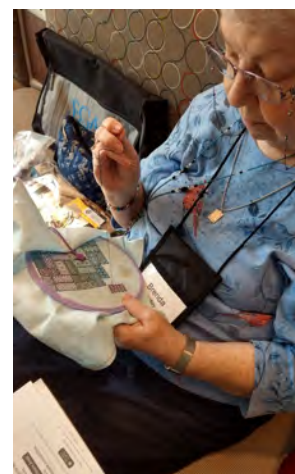

Sit 'n Stitch: Friday afternoon, all day Saturday, and Sunday morning, the breakfast area of the lobby was buzzing with talk, laughter, and oohs & aahs over some really beautiful stitching.

Right: Janet Noble and a friend discuss the pieces that will be taught at CAR Seminar 2023.

Janice Wright reported that there were 22 participants in the seminar class. With Kim Sanders not able to attend this retreat, Roberta Smith graciously took charge and helped teach the class and it was a success. The lecture scheduled for Friday night was presided over by Carole Overton with a power point presentation. It was a successful and informational lecture. The ITT Class with Jane Nichols is scheduled to begin Monday, September 5th. Seventeen people have signed up. Ms. Nichols has a website where all her classes are listed. Web/News Cathie Barker (newsletter@egacarolinas.org)

There was discussion of maintaining the website and sending messages through mail chimp. There are other providers that may have what we need. Chapter Presidents were encouraged to monitor their chapter's page on the CAR website and send any corrections or updates to website@egacarolinas.org. There needs to be 2 people with the authority to administer the CAR website.

Our newsletter is on the website. All in attendance were reminded to use the newest CAR logo on our newsletters and other materials. If your chapter officers need a digital copy of the logo, contact Cathie at newsletter@egacarolinas.org.

New Business: Carole Overton

Congratulations to Kim Sanders for winning the 2022 National Gold Thread Award, presented to her at the National Seminar in NYC. We now have two national Gold Thread Winners from the Carolinas Region!!

Social Media accounts are on the rise. Need to make sure there is more than one administrator for each account.

Reminder to use the new (updated) EGA logo when making new chapter name badges and correspondence. Get approval on all things relating to the logo.

There was a discussion on compensation to region rep. Compensation will be offered, but they can refuse the compensation or donate it to their chapter.

The National Lecture Series is changing to a Webinar format. This will allow up to 500 people to attend. There is a charge of $5 per lecture. This will all be explained in the Needlearts Newsletter. These can be used for a chapter program, but everyone in attendance needs to pay the $5.

Through the Needles Eye (TNE), formerly a travelling exhibit, will be a virtual experience. Carole showed a teaser film about how it will look. It will be great. When completed, EGA will own the film. Look for it on the website under TNE.

The progress of a new chapter forming was reported on. As a result of activities at the Raleigh Quilt Expo in 2021, some people were interested in joining, but did not have a local chapter. Some of these people lived in the Pinehurst area. Marguerite Ewing and Julia Tison of the Florence Area Chapter decided to look into it. (Marguerite is from the area). Contact was made with a local needlepoint shop and they went to work. Our first meeting in July was an introductory open house. We made kits to give out and provided information on the chapter. Right now, we have 9 new members, and our monthly meetings are growing. We are calling ourselves "Pinehurst Pins and Needles". We are Growing!!
